“ To share one memory wouldn't be enough because I have a whole life long amount of memories. Tug you wasn't just my big cousin you were my big brother man. You saved my life on more than one occasion and kept me out of jail on more than one occasion. You were a true gentleman and genuine hearted man. The sweetest funniest man I ever knew. You literally breathed life back into my lungs in a time I was at my darkest. Alot of people don't know this because you swore your that you'd keep it a secret. That was the man you were loyal,kind,hilarious, and just an amazing big heart full of love and no judgment. I will never forget our weekend adventures cause thats exactly what they were adventures. Thank you so much for givin me a 2nd chance at life big brother. I wouldn't be or have what I have with out you. Please forgive me for not staying closer to you and the girls. I promise to do better with that if your amazing wife will allow it. I love you so much big brother and I'm going to miss the hell out of you man. Rest easy with uncle Pete and save us all a seat.

“ sending our condolences to you and the girls...we all will miss him dearly. He called me sissy-mom when he was a toddler and as a man he was a devoted husband and father.
I love you Tug. Larry Ray remembers him teaching him all about pokemon.

“ I miss you so much .I never thought that when you came into my life 14 yrs ago that I could love you this much. You are more to me than a son in law you are my son and a piece of me died with you . Thank you for being a part of my life, treating my daughter like a princess, showing her what true love is ,those 3 beautiful smart and funny girls ,making me a grandma , and being exactly who you are.You're amazing ,talented,wonderful husband,father ,son and brother. This world is never going to be the same without you.I promise to help Jessica and the babies complete the dreams you guys were working on.Rest easy knowing you built a strong family . I love you I wish I had said it more , I am so proud of everything you guys have accomplished.

“ Tug was such a kind man! It was honor to have him as part of the Classic Real Estate Family. He never spoke an unkind word about anyone. It was apparent how much he loved his family in the way he always put them first. I loved watching him with his girls when he brought them to the office. He was a proud father and husband.
His clients and co-workers all thought so highly of him. He brought a smile to everyone he met and let us all with one in return. Tug will be truly missed and fondly remembered.
